Detailed Report:

The Cultural Cell, IQAC and Indigenous Cultural Cell (ICF), Bijni College, Bijni in collaboration with Stage Tree School of Acting and Theatre successfully organized a One-Day National Level Workshop on 'Acting, Theatre and Beyond: Essential Tools for Personality Development and Growth'. The workshop aimed to provide students with theoretical knowledge and practical exposure to the art of acting and theatre. Renowned trained actor and director Dr. Ridip Choudhury served as the resource person for the programme. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from teachers and students of the Bijni College.

Dr. Laimwn Basumatary, Assistant Professor, the Department of Political Science delivered the welcome address and conducted the felicitation of guests. Dr. Birhash Giri Basumatary, Principal, Bijni College inaugurated the programme by lighting the ceremonial lamp. In his brief inspiring speech, he emphasized the importance of theatre in holistic education, communication skills and personal development. The occasion was graced by distinguished personalities, including Dr. Ratan Kumar Ray, Physician and Dr. Rabi Ram Owary, SDMO, Bijni, Sabita Ray, Vice-Principal, Bijni College, Dr. Babul Basumatary, Co-Ordinator, IQAC, Bijni College whose gracious presence added significance to the event.

The workshop featured two technical sessions. The first session was conducted by the resource person, Dr. Ridip Choudhury, who actively engaged participants through a blend of lectures and practical demonstrations. He emphasized key elements of drama and stagecraft, while also highlighting how acting and theatre can contribute to personality development and personal growth. Through his lecture and demonstrations, he illustrated the importance of voice control, gestures, empathy, and body language

The second technical session focused entirely on hands-on training. It began with warm-up and breathing exercises, followed by body movement and posture training set to background music. Participants practiced activities related to emotional control and empathy. A short role-play was also introduced to enhance their creative acting skills. Additionally, the resource person guided the participants in presenting short group performances in the form of a "Make-Advertisement (Make-Ad)" play, with each group consisting of five members. Both teachers and students took part enthusiastically and thoroughly enjoyed the session.

Towards the end of the programme, Dr. Umananda Basumatary delivered the valedictory address by expressing heartfelt gratitude to the resource person, Dr. Ridip Choudhury for his dedicated efforts in successfully conducting the sessions. He also extended his thanks to the participating guests as well as to the principal, vice principal, all teaching and non-teaching staff, and the students for their active participation and support for making the workshop a grand success.

Internal Quality Assurance Report

One day national level workshop on Acting, Theatre and Beyond: Essential Tools for Personality Development and Growth was successfully organized that aimed at nurturing creativity, enhancing stage presence, and building confidence among students. The session was conducted by Dr. Ridip Choudhury, (Director, Stage Tree School of Acting and Theatre), a seasoned theatre artist with extensive experience in stage and screen performances. The workshop began with ice-breaking activities to help participants feel comfortable and expressive. This was followed by voice modulation exercises, body language training, and improvisation games that encouraged spontaneity and emotional expression. Students also learned about character building, dialogue delivery, and the importance of empathy in performance. The interactive format allowed participants to perform short scenes, receive constructive feedback, and refine their acting techniques. The atmosphere remained energetic and supportive throughout, fostering collaboration and creativity. In the closing session, the trainer shared valuable insights on pursuing acting as a career and the role of theatre in personal development. Participants expressed that the workshop not only improved their acting skills but also boosted their self-confidence and communication abilities.

The Acting Workshop was a resounding success, leaving participants inspired and motivated to explore the world of theatre further. The college looks forward to organizing more such events to encourage artistic expression among students.
