Editorial

It is with immense pleasure and a deep sense of responsibility that I welcome you to the second issue of The Bagurumba – Reflections on culture, society and Bodo nation, the official newsletter of the Department of Bodo, Bijni College, Bijni.

The publication of this 2nd issue marks a significant milestone in the academic journey of our department. More than a newsletter, The Bagurumba is envisioned as a platform for intellectual engagement, critical reflection, and meaningful dialogue. Derived from the Bodo traditional word Bagurumba, meaning "a group dance," the title cultural the enduring spirit of Bodo culture—the name of Bagurumba dance is a most popular traditional Bodo group dance. The dance is reflect the the spirit of strong Bodo dance, where reflect the culture, nation and existence of the Bodo society as well as customs of the society. Through this newsletter, we aspire to nurture these qualities by providing a space where students and teachers can share ideas, explore Bodo traditions, and engage with contemporary issues through thoughtful analysis. The 2nd issue reflects the enthusiasm, creativity, and scholarly spirit of our department. It showcases contributions that explore diverse themes of culture, literature, and meaning, demonstrating that culturist is not confined to classrooms or books but is woven into our everyday experiences. We hope that every article inspires readers to ask questions, appreciate different perspectives, and cultivate a lifelong love for learning. I extend my heartfelt gratitude to the Principal of Bijni College for the constant encouragement and support extended to the Department of Bodo. I also express my sincere appreciation to our all faculty members, student contributors, and the editorial team, whose dedication and collaborative efforts have transformed this vision into reality. As we present this second issue, we look forward to The Bagurumba growing into a vibrant tradition of literary along with cultural inquiry and academic excellence at Bijni College. Hope it will be continue to inspire cultural and literary minds, encourage thoughtful conversations, and strengthen the students within the bodo department of the institution.
